UNITED FOR RECOVERY

A COMMUNITY-DRIVEN RESPONSE

In the wake of the devastating Los Angeles wildfires, our community stepped up, united by a shared goal of offering aid, hope, and healing. The L.A. Wildfire Relief Effort, held on January 18, 2025, demonstrated the remarkable power of people coming together in times of crisis. This report highlights the impact of our volunteers, donors, and partners, showing how we transformed tragedy into an opportunity to rebuild lives—one act of kindness at a time.

Key Achievements at a Glance

- 120 individuals and families received direct assistance
- 198 volunteers contributed 1,540 hours of service
- 36 community organizations collaborated to maximize impact
- 980 essential items distributed, including food, hygiene kits, and medical supplies
- 16 deliveries made to displaced individuals or organizations to distribute to affected populations

AIDING THE MOST VULNERABLE WHO WE HELPED

Our relief efforts were shaped by the diverse needs of those affected by the wildfires. A total of 120 individuals and families sought support. Among them:

- 78 households required immediate relief items
- 36 nonprofit and community organizations coordinated distribution efforts

This outpouring of support reflected a deep commitment to ensuring that no one was left behind during this crisis.

MOBILIZING RESOURCES

DONATIONS, VOLUNTEERS & DISTRIBUTION

The response was nothing short of inspiring. With 198 volunteers dedicating over 1,500 hours, we distributed critical resources across Los Angeles. The event operated from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, providing 12 hours of nonstop service. Volunteers—including health professionals, logistics teams, and community coordinators—were instrumental in ensuring smooth operations.

In-kind donations exceeded $200,000, reflecting the generosity of businesses, organizations, and individuals. These contributions were the foundation of our relief efforts.

ESSENTIAL CONTRIBUTIONS: WHAT WAS DONATED

Thanks to the immense generosity of the community, essential items were provided to those impacted by the fires:

- Hygiene Kits – 280+ kits to support health and cleanliness
- PPE Supplies – 285+ masks, hand sanitizers, and first aid supplies to mitigate health risks
- Clothing & Blankets – 700+ items to provide warmth and security
- Baby & Child Essentials – 3,000+ items, including diapers, clothing, toys, food, and wipes
- Hot Meal Vouchers – 25 vouchers to provide nourishing meals
- Gift Cards – Over 20 gift cards to allow families to purchase essential items based on their specific needs

STORIES FROM THE GROUND

VOICES OF RESILIENCE

Beyond the numbers, the real impact of this effort is felt through personal stories:

 "God bless you and everyone helping." — A Wildfire Survivor

 "I volunteered because I wanted to give back. Seeing the relief on people's faces when they received supplies made every moment worthwhile."
— Volunteer

 "The ability to deliver supplies to homebound seniors was crucial. Many had no way to access relief centers." — Community Partner Organization

Personal Stories

"A local mother has shared her struggles as her family faces severe financial hardship due to the Malibu fire. Her husband has been unable to work since the fire started, and the family is unsure when he will be able to return to work. Paying rent has become a significant challenge, and buying diapers for their 4-year-old, who is non-verbal and still in diapers, is a constant worry."

"A representative from a local nonprofit coordinated the delivery of hygiene products and first aid kits to displaced families affected by the fire, ensuring they had access to critical supplies during this difficult time."

LOOKING AHEAD

SUSTAINING RELIEF & FUTURE PREPAREDNESS

While the L.A. Wildfire Relief Effort was a tremendous success, full recovery remains a long journey. Continued support is crucial. We urge the community to stay engaged through:

- Ongoing donations
- Volunteering efforts
- Strengthening partnerships

Our Commitment

Looking ahead, we are dedicated to:

- Sustainable relief solutions
- Emergency preparedness initiatives
- Community-driven recovery efforts

Through collaboration, compassion, and dedication, we will ensure no one faces disaster alone.
